Hi Jennifer,

I am reviewing your sign application now, but have to admit to being confused by whether the sign will still meet the 5' property line setback, once the brick pillars are added. It looks like the existing sign is exactly 5' from the front property line. Are you planning to move it back slightly to accommodate the added pillars? The whole sign needs to be 5' from the line.

Thanks,
Chris

Hi there,

Yes, we will be relocating the new sign to meet the 15' setback to accommodate the pillars.

Great, thanks - I assume you mean 5' and not 15'! ;-)
