04: STATE AND FEDERAL PERMITS

The proposed site development does not require state or federal permits. Stormwater will be reviewed under the provisions of delegated review authority by the City of Portland and the site disturbance is below the one-acre threshold requiring a Maine Construction General Permit Application from the Maine Department of Environmental Protection.