Product Information

Description

- DRIcore is a simple do-it-yourself solution to help create a warm, dry, comfortable basement
- The convenient 2' x 2' panels are easy to transport from the store to the renovation site
- Smart - DRIcore Subfloor panels promote good indoor air quality by allowing concrete to breathe, which in turn reduces the potential for mold and mildew
- Easy - DRIcore Subfloor panels are so easy to use, a typical 500 square foot basement installs in an afternoon
