Katherine

We had a very productive meeting @ 102 Monday 12/12.

Our inspector will be following up with next steps to be in code.

My understanding is we will replace the door to our furnace room and Unit 7 glass door.

Mike, so grateful you stepped in to assist us. It takes a village.

Thank again everyone. Happy Holidays.

All,

Regarding the consult for CQCA, The inspector has been pulled into Court for 10:00 AM that morning and needs to reschedule.

Therefore, the meeting needs to be rescheduled for 9:00 AM, would this work for everyone?

Thank you in advance,

Yes I'd be very happy to attend. I'll plan on being there unless I hear otherwise.

Thanks!

Good morning! I am reaching out to you on behalf of Mary Noyes, she is currently traveling out west. Mary wanted to get Mike in the loop and see if it was possible to get someone from Cunningham to attend the meeting at the property, Monday Dec 12 at 9:30am with Mary. Please let us know if this would be a possibility? I have forwarded below the emails regarding the situation and what they are hoping to do at the property in lieu of fire doors that Mary has been researching. Thanks so much for your time.

Hi Ms. Noyes,

Rather than continue to play phone tag, I thought I would email you to see what time on Monday, 12/12 you could meet the inspector for the consultation?

Thank you,

Katharine

Dear Keith and Kathryn,

Thank you both for helping us make the best choice to be in compliance @ Captain's Quarter . I will stop by tomorrow and we can schedule a time for a sight visit.

The idea of a fire alarm system folding into Cunningham Security sounds fantastic.

Since the July 14, 2016 letter we have researched expensive replacement doors our owners can't afford as well as medal doors that would detract from our character in an old Victorian building.

Look forward to meeting you both.

Kind regards,

I have BCC the other owners in our building to keep them informed your paper work simple.
