Dear Building Inspection Division,

Please find the attached documents concerning conversion of the property of 52-54 Moody St. to condominiums. Only one unit is currently occupied. The contact details of the former tenants for the other unit are provided. Pending approval and final payment of the required fees, notification will take place according to the Condo Conversion Ordinance using the sample notification letter enclosed.

If there are questions with the application, please do not hesitate to contact me. If it is easier, since I am currently serving in the military overseas, you can contact my lawyer in Portland Maine:
