41 Fox Street: Garage A:

Framing Plan:

single window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and the sentence window in each using 2x6 construction at 16 inches on center and 2x6 construction at 16 inc framing other than blocking and strapping for drywall. The only new framing that will be done to the existing structure is framing in two garage door openings, one on each end, to accommodate a

Driveway side of Garage A – the windows will be symetrical

This drawing is an example.