Said premises shall be used by the Tenant only for those purposes designated in Article I and for no other purpose or purposes. and in compliance with the Rules and Regulations set forth in the attached and hereby incorporated Exhibit A.

ARTICLE III - TERM

The term of this lease shall commence on August 4<sup>25</sup>, 2014 and shall terminate on August 31, 2019. Tenant shall have an option to renew the Lease as set forth in the attached and hereby incorporated Exhibit B.

This Lease is conditioned upon Tenant obtaining all needed licenses, permits and approvals from both the City of Portland and the State of Maine. If licenses, permits or approvals are not obtained by Tenant by September 30, 2014, Tenant shall be entitled to cancel this Lease and shall be entitled to the return of any security deposit given to Landlord. In the event Tenant exercises this right to terminate the Lease, Tenant shall provide written notice of the same on or before October 7, 2014. If such notice is not provided, Tenant shall have waived its right to terminate or cancel this lease pursuant to this paragraph. If delivery of possession of the premises shall be delayed beyond the date specified above for the commencement of the term of this lease through no fault of the Landlord, the Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant for any damage resulting from such delay and the Tenant's obligation to pay rent shall be suspended and abated until possession of the premises is delivered. In the event of such a delay, it is understood and agreed that the commencement of the term of this lease shall also be postponed until delivery of possession and that the termination date of the term shall be correspondingly extended.

ARTICLE IV - RENT

The tenant shall pay base rent in equal monthly installments in advance on the first day of each month during the term hereof without set off, notice or demand. Base rent shall be prorated for portions of a calendar month at the beginning or end of said term, all payments to be made to the Landlord or to such agent and at such place as the Landlord shall from time to time in writing designate, the following being now so designated: DIRIGO MANAGEMENT COMPANY, INC.,

ONE CITY CENTER, PORTLAND, MAINE 04101-4009. If Tenant does not pay base rent, supplemental and additional rents, other fees and charges due pursuant to the terms of this Lease, then the Landlord, in its sole discretion, may charge, in addition to any other remedies it may have, a late charge for each month or part thereof that the Tenant fails to pay the amount due after the due date. The late charge shall be in the amount of five percent (5%) of the unpaid amount for all sums that are in excess of ten (10) days overdue. Continuous or repeated late payment of rent shall constitute a default of the Tenant hereunder. Any payments made by check that are returned for any reason are subject to a $75.00 service charge.

Chronic Late Payments of Rent: Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, and without limiting Landlord's other rights and remedies provided for in this Lease, if Tenant fails to pay by the due date any Base Rent, Additional Rent, or any other charges owing under this Lease more than three (3) times within any twelve (12) month period, then Landlord, at ~~it's~~its sole election and in its sole and absolute discretion, may do one or more of the following:

- a. Terminate the Lease in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof and evict the Tenant from the Premises;
- b. Require that, beginning with the first monthly installment of Base Rent next due, the Base Rent shall no longer be paid in monthly installments, but shall be payable in advance on a quarterly basis, on the first day of the first month of the quarter (or three-month period);
- c. Increase the Security Deposit by an amount that the Landlord determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, is necessary to protect its interests; provided that such amount does not exceed three (3) months of the then-applicable monthly Base Rent. Such increase shall be paid by Tenant immediately upon demand by Landlord.

No payment by the Tenant or receipt by the Landlord of a lesser amount than the monthly installments of rent herein stipulated shall be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated rent nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and the Landlord may accept such check for payment without prejudice to the Landlord's right to recover the balance of such rent or pursue any other remedy in this lease provided.

Commencing with the base year amounts as defined in Article I, the Landlord will determine as of the last day of the each year the Operating Expenses per annum of the building and its appurtenances and all exterior areas, yards, plazas, sidewalks, parking areas, landscaping and the like then located outside of the building but related thereto and the parcels of land on which they are located (said building, appurtenances, exterior areas, and land hereinafter referred to in total as the "building"). Operating Expenses include, but are not limited to:

- a) All utility costs, including monies paid to any utility company (CMP, PWD, Northern Utilities, etc...), the City of Portland and any other entities, for furnishing electricity, heat, air conditioning, steam, water, sewer, fuel oil and gas services to the building;
- b) All costs of any insurance carried by the Landlord related to the building;
- c) All costs of any contractor of the Landlord engaged in the cleaning, operating, maintenance, management, rubbish removal, repairs, replacements, security, building supplies, snow removal, window cleaning, and any other reasonable costs associated with the operating, management, and maintenance of the building.

In the event that Operating Expenses for any year shall be greater than Base Operating Expenses (herein called "Excess Expenses"), the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord, as an Escalation Charge, an amount of additional rent equal to (i) the Excess Expenses multiplied by (ii) the Tenant's Proportional Share of Applicable Costs as set forth in Article I, such amount to be apportioned for any fraction of a year in which the Commencement Date falls or the Term of this Lease ends. In the first year of the Lease, the Landlord shall apportion such expenses based on the date Tenant is entitled to possession of the premises, not the scheduled rent commencement date. Landlord shall make every effort to keep Tenant advised of any anticipated Excess Expenses prior to incurring said expenses. If anticipated Excess Expenses are greater than ten percent (10%) of Tenants' Base Operating Expenses, Tenant shall be entitled to terminate this Lease upon ~~thirtyninety~~ (390) days notice. In the event that Base Operating Expenses increase by more than twenty percent (20%) over the prior year's Base Operating Expenses, Tenant shall have the option of terminating this Lease upon ~~thirty~~ (390) days' notice.

After the end of each fiscal year, the Landlord shall deliver to the Tenant a statement showing the increase in such Operating Expenses for the prior fiscal year over the Base Operating Expense, and also showing the Tenant's share of such increase. The Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days after such delivery, pay the Tenant's share to the Landlord, as supplemental rent. The Landlord may also elect to have the Tenant make monthly estimated payments to the Landlord for the Tenant's share of the increases in Building taxes and operating costs. Said estimated monthly payments shall be made along with the base rent payments.

In the event that Taxes per square foot of the Building Rentable Area shall be greater during any year than the Base Year Taxes (herein called "Excess Taxes"), whether by reason of an increase in either the tax rate or assessed valuation, or to a change in the property constituting the building or to a different classification of taxation as provided herein, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord, as an Escalation Charge, an amount of additional rent equal to (i) the Excess Taxes multiplied by (ii) the Tenant's Proportional Share of Applicable Costs as set forth in Article I, such amount to be apportioned for any fraction of a fiscal year in which the Commencement Date falls or the Term of this Lease ends. In the first year of the Lease, the Landlord shall apportion taxes based on the date Tenant is entitled to possession of the premises, not the scheduled rent commencement date. Such Excess Taxes shall be paid upon receiving an invoice from the Landlord upon a schedule consistent with the payment schedule to the taxing Authority.

Taxes assessed and levied against the real estate (which term shall include personal property to the extent that elevators, air conditioning equipment, or similar building appurtenances for the use and benefit of all of the occupants of the building are classified as personal property for tax purposes) shall mean all real estate taxes, betterment assessments (special or general, ordinary or extraordinary), water and sewer taxes, and any other charges made by public authority which upon assessment or upon failure of payment become a lien upon the building of which the premises are a part or are the personal liability of the Landlord. Taxes shall also include Landlord's costs and expenses, including the costs of attorneys, appraisers and other professionals, in seeking abatement of any such taxes.

In the event the Landlord is required to pay to any taxing authority any amount as sales taxes, gross receipts taxes, or any tax of like nature specifically measured as a percentage of, or fraction of, or other factors based upon the rent payable hereunder (whether in lieu of, or in addition to, real estate taxes) then such amounts shall be treated as real estate taxes hereunder. Any amounts which are payable to the Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph shall, at the option of the Landlord be paid instead to the Taxing authority concerned whether such payments be required on a monthly, quarterly, or other time interval basis. Taxes shall not include federal or state income taxes or taxes in lieu thereof.

In the event that such taxes are abated, reduced or refunded for any fiscal year in which the Tenant paid an escalation Charge, an equitable refund of such charge shall be made to reflect the Tenant's pro rata share of such reduction less all costs incurred by the Landlord in securing the same, but the pendency of any application or other proceeding relating to any such abatement, reduction or refund shall not delay the computation and payment by the Tenant of its share of any Escalation Charge.

ARTICLE V - LANDLORD COVENANTS

Landlord covenants and agrees that it will without additional charge furnish the following;

- a) Maintenance and repair of the roof, exterior walls, windows, structure, heating and plumbing systems, and electrical system and common areas and common facilities of the building as necessary to maintain them in good order and condition; provided however, that any such maintenance or repairs made necessary by fault or neglect of the Tenant or the employees and visitors of the Tenant shall be at the expense of the Tenant and the Tenant shall pay all costs thereof.

Landlord shall furnish these services without additional direct charge to Tenant but the Landlord's cost of providing these services may (as appropriate) ~~by~~be considered Operating Expenses subject to the provisions of Article IV.

The Landlord shall not be liable to anyone for interruption in or cessation of any service rendered to the premises or building or agreed to by the terms of this Lease, due to any accident, the making of repairs, labor difficulties, trouble in obtaining fuel, electricity, service or supplies from the sources from which they are usually obtained for said building, or any cause beyond the Landlord's control; excepting the reckless or intentional acts of the Landlord, its agents or employees, and except to the extent that the liability of the Landlord is insured by virtue of a general comprehensive Landlord public liability insurance policy, which the Landlord agrees to maintain with respect to the building. The parties acknowledge that it is Tenant's responsibility to obtain insurance against business interruption and related loss.

In the event the Landlord approves the installation and/or utilization of such services, such installation and utilization shall be at the Tenant's sole cost, risk and expense.

ARTICLE VII - SUBORDINATION

The Tenant agrees that, at the election of the Landlord, this Lease shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage which may now or hereafter be placed on, encumber, or affect the real property of which the premises are a part and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, and replacements thereof. When requested to do so by the Landlord, the Tenant agrees to execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Landlord any instrument that Landlord or its mortgagee may reasonably request, in proper form for recording, wherein the Tenant agrees to and does subordinate this Lease to the lien of the mortgages above mentioned. The Tenant's obligation to subordinate this Lease to the lien of future mortgages is conditioned upon the Mortgagee's written agreement that, if the mortgage is foreclosed, the Tenant shall have the right to occupy the premises on the terms set forth in this lease so long as the Tenant performs its obligations hereunder.

ARTICLE VIII - CASUALTY DAMAGE AND EMINENT DOMAIN

If at any time during the lease term the premises shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, then the Landlord shall have the election to terminate this Lease or to repair and reconstruct the premises to the condition thereof immediately prior to such damage or destruction. Unless such fire or other casualty shall have been caused by the negligence of the Tenant, its agents, employees, or invitees, rent shall abate proportionately during the period and to the extent that the premises are unfit for the use by the Tenant in the ordinary conduct of its permitted uses hereunder. If the Landlord has elected to repair and restore the premises, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect and such repairs will be made within a reasonable time.

If the whole or any part of the demised premises shall be acquired or condemned by eminent domain for any public or quasipublic use or purpose, then and in that event, the term of this Lease shall cease and terminate from the date of title vesting in such proceedings and the Tenant shall have no claim against the Landlord for the value of any unexpired term of said lease and the Tenant shall not be entitled to any part of any award that may be made for such taking.

ARTICLE IX - BREACH BY TENANT: TERMINATION OF LEASE

If the Tenant or any guarantor of this Lease shall fail to pay any Base Rent, additional rent, or any other sums described in the Lease when due, or if Tenant shall neglect or fail to perform or observe any of the covenants herein contained, and such default continues for a period of five (5) days after written notice from the Landlord stating the default, or if the estate hereby created shall be taken on execution or other process of law, or if any assignment shall be made of the property of Tenant (or any guarantor of this Lease) for the benefit of creditors, or if the Tenant (or any guarantor of this Lease) files a petition in bankruptcy, is adjudicated insolvent, or bankrupt, petitions or applies to any tribunal for any receiver or trustee, commences any proceeding for any reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, dissolution or liquidation, or if there is commenced against the Tenant (or any guarantor of this Lease) any such proceeding which remains undismissed for a period of sixty (60) days, or if the Tenant (or any guarantor of this Lease), by any act, indicates, its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any such proceedings, or the appointment of any receiver or trustee, or suffers any such receivership or trusteeship to continue undischarged for a period of sixty (60) days, or if Tenant shall fail to take possession of the premises, or shall fail to open the premises for the conduct of Tenant's business on the Commencement Date or to operate Tenant's business at the premises during normal business hours ~~Normal Business Hours (defined to mean X:XX to X:XX)~~ at any time thereafter for any period exceeding one week (singularly, an "Event of Default") then in any of the said cases the Landlord lawfully may, immediately or at any time thereafter and without demand or notice, exercise any remedy of Landlord under this lease and/or may enter into and upon the premises, or any part thereof, forcibly if necessary, and repossess the same as of the Landlord's former estate, and expel the Tenant and those claiming through or under the Tenant, and remove the effects of both or either (forcibly if necessary) without being deemed guilty of any manner of trespass and without prejudice to any remedies for arrears of rent or preceding breach of covenant. Upon any Event of Default or entry as aforesaid, at Landlord's option, the Tenant's estate and possession and/or this lease shall terminate and the Landlord, in addition to its remedies set forth above, shall have all other remedies which it may be entitled to at law or in equity.

If this lease shall be terminated as provided in section 9.01, Tenant shall forthwith pay to Landlord as damages, in addition to all sums which were due prior to the date of such termination, a sum equal to the amount by which the Base Rent for the remainder of the term hereof exceeds the fair rental value of the premises for the remainder of the term hereby granted; and in addition thereto Tenant will further indemnify Landlord during the remainder of the term against all loss of Base Rent and additional rent due for the remainder of the term hereby leased, suffered by reason of such termination, first deducting any damages paid as provided above, the loss of such rent, if any, for each month of the remainder of the term hereof to be paid at the end of each month. For the purpose of computing damages payable hereunder, it is agreed that there shall also be payable to Landlord, as damages, at the same time and in the same installments as are specified in this lease, (a) the Tenant's share of excess expenses due from or paid by Tenant in respect of the year in which such termination occurs and (b) Tenant's share of excess taxes due from or paid by Tenant in respect of the year during which such termination occurs, multiplied by the number of years remaining in the term hereof, it being assumed that the amount of such charges and expenses and real estate taxes so payable for the said calendar year during which termination occurs will fairly represent the amount of such charges in the future.

Tenant also agrees (i) to indemnify and save Landlord harmless from and against all reasonable expenses which Landlord may incur by reason of such termination and the cost of putting the premises in good order or preparing the same for rental to other tenants, and (ii) that Landlord may re-let the premises, or any portion thereof, either in the name of the Landlord or otherwise for a period which may, at Landlord's option, be less than or exceed the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the term and may grant concessions or free rent if necessary or appropriate. The failure of Landlord to re-let the premises or any portion thereof shall not release or affect Tenant's liability for damages. Any suit brought to collect the amount of deficiency for any month shall not prejudice in any way the right of Landlord to collect any deficiency for any subsequent month by a similar proceeding. Landlord may make such alterations, repairs, replacements and decorations to the premises as Landlord, in Landlord's sole judgment, considers advisable or necessary for the purpose of re-letting the premises, and the making of such alterations, repairs, replacements or decorations shall not operate or be construed to release Tenant from liability hereunder. Landlord shall not be liable for failure to re-let the premises, or, if the premises are re-let, for failure to collect the rent due under such re-letting.

ARTICLE X - LANDLORD-TENANT SELF-HELP

If the Tenant shall default in the performance or observance of any agreement or condition in this Lease contained on its part to be performed or observed, other than an obligation to pay money, and shall not cure such default as provided herein, the Landlord may, at its option, without waiving any claim for damages for breach of this Lease, at any time thereafter, cure such default for account of the Tenant, any amount paid or any liability incurred by the Landlord in so doing shall be deemed paid or incurred for the account of the Tenant, and the Tenant agrees to reimburse the Landlord thereof upon demand. If Landlord fails to make any needed repairs to the premises to allow Tenants usual use of the premises within two (2) days of notifying Landlord, Tenant shall be entitled to complete said repairs and deduct any amounts paid from the next scheduled rental payment or payments unless Landlord has commenced efforts to make such repairs, including, but not limited to, submitting an application for any building permit that may be required for the work, in which case Landlord shall have a reasonable time to complete the repairs and Tenant shall have no right to complete the work or deduct from rent payments the cost thereof.

ARTICLE XI - LANDLORD DEFAULT

The Landlord shall in no event be in default in the performance of any of his obligations hereunder unless and until the Landlord shall have failed to perform such obligations within thirty (30) days or such additional time as is reasonably required to correct any such default after notice by the Tenant to the Landlord properly specifying wherein the Landlord has failed to perform any such obligation.
