Good Morning,

I have been working with Nancy Bogg who owns a piece of property at 98 Sheridan St. Ms Bogg recently received a building permit for a new single family home to be built on her lot - but which is technically a condo due to zoning restrictions.

(Ms Bogg mentioned that the Zoning restrictions may change at some point which will negate the need for a condominium.)

She asked if she could have her own address assigned as opposed to 100 Sheridan St Unit#2 which is the address recorded in her condo documents.

This address "change" was reviewed to and agreed upon by the attorney who drew up these documents.

The Bogg family will be braking ground on this new home in the near future.

Enclosed, please find a PDF copy of the plot plan that I generated for her attorney.

Thanks,
Chuck
