HAND DELIVERED

Ms. Rachel Mazerolle
77 Congress Street, Unit 1F
Portland, ME 04101

Dear Rachel,

As previously discussed, we are planning to renovate 77 Congress Street beginning in October of this year. Per your lease, dated November 15, 2016 this letter serves as your 120-day notice period to vacate the property. You are welcome to remain in occupancy per the terms of the lease through September 30, 2017.

Per the City of Portland Land Use Ordinance, Chapter 14, Article VII you will be given the right to purchase your unit. A specific offer with pricing expectations will be forthcoming this summer. If you do not buy your apartment, EP Munjoy 1 LLC is required by law to assist you in finding another place to live and in determining your eligibility for relocation payments. If you have questions about your rights under the law, or complaints about the way you have been treated by EP Munjoy 1 LLC, you may contact the Building Inspection Division, Department of Planning and Urban Development, City of Portland, 389 Congress Street, Portland, Maine 04101 (telephone: 874-8703).

As always, feel free to contact us with questions or concerns.

All the best,

HAND DELIVERED

Katie Hansberry
77 Congress Street, Unit 1R
Portland, ME 04101

Dear Katie,

Per our hand delivered notification to you on May 22, 2017 (copy attached), EP Munjoy 1 LLC will begin unit renovations this fall.

In the May 22, 2017 notification, we referenced your right to purchase your unit. Our plans are to renovate kitchens and bathrooms, with other selective renovations that can be discussed in detail depending on your interest level. This would require you to vacate your unit for a period of 8 months. We offer you the right to purchase your renovated unit for a price of $300,000 and this offer is exclusively yours for 60 days from the date hereof until you notify us in writing that you are not interested in pursuing the offer.

As a reminder, if you do not buy your apartment, EP Munjoy 1 LLC is required by law to assist you in finding another place to live and in determining your eligibility for relocation payments. If you have questions about your rights under the law, or complaints about the way you have been treated by EP Munjoy 1 LLC, you may contact the Building Inspection Division, Department of Planning and Urban Development, City of Portland, 389 Congress Street, Portland, Maine 04101 (telephone: 874-8703).
