

Portland, Maine

Yes. Life's good here.

Planning & Urban Development Department

September 11, 2015

Jay Waterman, Development Director
Portland Housing Authority
14 Baxter Blvd.
Portland, ME 04101

Dear Mr. Waterman:

In November 2002, the City of Portland adopted a Comprehensive Plan, which was found consistent with the state's Growth Management Law in February 2003. The Bayside Anchor proposal, located at 58 Boyd Street, is located in a growth area as designated in the city's comprehensive plan.

Bayside Anchor is a housing project with 45 units of low-income housing is located at 58 Boyd Street and 81 East Oxford Street is within the Residential R-7 zone. The R-7 zones is one of Portland's designated growth zones (map and chart attached).

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads 'Barbara Barhydt'.

Barbara Barhydt
Development Review Services Manager

Cc: Jeff Levine, Director, Department of Planning and Urban Development
Tyler Norod, Housing Planner, Housing and Community Development