Here are the registrations for the two tiny houses - contrary to what they were trying to argue, these are registered as trailers and not RVs. I'll let you know when I get in the lease agreement and then we can come up with a response.

Any news on where the draft RV ordinance is? Is it still with Planning?

Anne, attached are copies of registrations and plates for the trailers. I'm working with them this week to make sure their proposed occupancy agreement complies with applicable law and we'll get that over to you as soon as possible.

Anne, as mentioned, the title for one of the trailers is being processed by bmv and is not yet back to my clients. Do you want a copy of the other one now, or just wait 'til the second comes in? And next week they will provide a copy of the lease form they planned to use.
