While it is disappointing that they removed the clerestory windows, I have no conditions of approval for the project.

I am getting ready to issue the approval letter and would like to finalize the conditions of approval that should be included.

You reviewed the August submission and provided the attached review comments (which included a couple of potential conditions).

The applicant has submitted revised plans which (to me) appear similar to the Aug 2 ones that you reviewed, but please take a look and confirm (email fine) that your comments of Aug 2 still stand (or not).

I attach the latest elevations; they did not send in renderings and have not changed the height of the concrete on Preble Street.

thanks

Jean
