

To whom it may concern,

I am sending this along as a reference to a building permit app that has already been submitted.

I have spoken with Ann Machado , and she has suggested that I take this approach.

My first permit which was sent in via email in early May was never received by the inspections division. After not hearing back for a while, I called to inquire and was told that.

I reapplied and then learned that the exterior structure would need a site plan evaluation due to its size.

Being in a pinch for time, I would like to be able to move forward on the two small interior projects that are part of the same application while the deck gets sorted out.

That said, if we could separate the application into two projects so as to move on the interior, it would be much appreciated.

Thank you,
