Hi Carolyn,

Discovered one question on the sidewalk sign - the application lists the height as 45 inches. Is this actually correct? The sign does not look that tall in the photos. The height limit is only 40 inches. Can you double-check and let me know?

Thanks again,
Chris

Hi Chris -

I am not on site in Portland today but I had our GM, measure it again and he has says that yes, it is 45 inches. I didn't realize that there was a 40 inch limit. We are going to do one of two things. First, we are going to try cutting the legs down. If that doesn't work I am just going to order a smaller a-frame.

Cheers,
Carolyn
