To Whom it May Concern,

The Artemisia Restaurant is located at 61 Pleasant Street in Portland and is on the ground floor of the building know as The Bakery Studios. The building is owned by myself (Katarina Weslien) and Alison Hildreth. We hereby give permission for Artemisia restaurant to install the three awnings that have been proposed by Maine Bay Canvas. The tenant agrees to maintain the awnings and verify the safety of pedestrian traffic.

The awnings will be over each of the three large windows on the front of the restaurant. Two of the awnings will be 9' by 4' and one will be 14' by 4'. They will mostly cover the entire front of the 50' main building frontage.

Sincerely,
