
14. UTILITY CAPACITY TO SERVE

All utility services for the proposed building will be routed through the existing IMT facility except for a proposed electrical pole which is proposed on the norther portion of the property. The final design of the building is still being determined. Letters to all applicable utilities requesting confirmation or capacity to serve the proposed building will be submitted and forwarded separately.