STATE EVALUATION OF PROJECT & CONCERNS:

As is documented by the Part 1 and Part 2 narratives and photos, the subject building has been vacant and neglected for several years, has had its interior completely gutted by a previous owner, and has been damaged by fire and vandalism. The proposed project represents a substantial investment on the part of the current owner to address long neglected maintenance issues; restore and replace windows that were damaged or lost to fire and vandals; upgrade the building's structural, HVAC and fire protection systems; and to completely re-finish the interior. Due to its small size and poor condition, the Commission believes that the subject building would be in danger of demolition if not for the current proposal.

The Commission has no concerns regarding the proposed modernization of the interior due to the complete lack of historic materials and finishes remaining. Two alterations to the appearance of the historic exterior are proposed, including a redesign of the c.1950 colonial revival style display window that is too deteriorated for restoration, and replacement of a damaged paneled entry door with a compatible glazed door. The paneled entry door proposed for replacement does not appear to be original to the building and may have been salvaged from another building. The Commission has enclosed a letter from an architect member of the Portland Historic Preservation Board who abstained from voting on the rehabilitation proposal due to his support for the significant benefits of the overall project and his conflicting concern regarding the proposed treatment of the c.1950 display window that was designed by architect John Howard Stevens. While the Commission concurs with the Board member's assessment of the aesthetic significance of the existing storefront window, we consider the proposed window to be a compatible alteration that retains the dimensions and location of the c.1950 window, which will continue to reflect its cultural significance as a historic change to the building that was implemented to appeal to passing motorists.

Please note that while the submitted Part 2 application covers all aspects of the project, an amendment sheet was provided on April 26, 2013 to clarify that the owner wishes to take a phased approach to the project. Phase 1 will address all of the work on the structural systems and the building envelope. Phase 2 will address the interior and finishes.

 Added by NPS:

Storefront Windows – The replacement first floor commercial bay window located on the eastern side of the Congress Street elevation must match the configuration of the existing multi-light window designed by John Howard Stevens. This 1950 window was constructed during the period of significance for the Congress Street Historic District and has gained significance in its own right. The proposed window is not based on any historical documentation and is not compatible with the proportions of the façade.

Insulation – Caution should be taken to ensure that the proposed rigid insulation is vapor permeable to avoid masonry deterioration due to freeze-thaw cycles.

DECISION: Approval

Dear Mr. Guimond:

The National Park Service has reviewed the additional information received on August 27, 2013 for the above-referenced Historic Preservation Certification Application for this project. After careful consideration, we have determined that the revised storefront proposal is in conformance with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation and with the preliminary approval issued by this office on May 29, 2013.

As you are aware, a formal "certification of rehabilitation" can be issued only to the owner or qualified lessee of a "certified historic structure" after the rehabilitation work is completed. At that time, please submit a Request for Certification of Completed Work, with interior and exterior photographs of the completed work, to this office through the State Historic Preservation Office. An onsite inspection of the completed work by an authorized representative of the Secretary of the Interior may be undertaken prior to issuance of the final certification of rehabilitation.

If you have any questions, please call the State Historic Preservation Office or me at 202-354-2026.

Sincerely,

Jo Ellen Hensley
