Dear Ms. Schmuckal:

This letter is a follow up to our phone conversation of this morning regarding the application at City Hall for signage at 148 Spring Street.

The space at 148 Spring Street consists of professional offices which house the corporate headquarters for my company named Scott Potter of Ornamenta Designs. As a designer of decorative accessories it is important for me to have a showroom "for the trade". In the world of interior design this means that interior decorators and buyers for stores visit the room to see samples and to arrange for wholesale purchase orders.

The showroom is attached to the offices and I feel that because the majority of the interior designers and buyers are travelling from out of state, I need to have a designation to facilitate finding the exact location.

The signage that I seek approval for is small, tasteful, and appropriate for the older style of the building. The condominium association of the Spring Street Rowhouses unanmously feels that the proposed signage will enhance the aesthetics of the building.

The application that was filled out at my offices should have designated the room as a showroom. If there has been confusion in the application process on that point, I regret that error as it does not state the facts correctly.

My work is represented in national catalogues (Bergdorf Goodman's and Horchow Collection) and I have extensive wholesale business as well. There is no need for me to offer a retail trade when I am so booked with wholesale accounts from out of state.

RE: Sign permit - R-6 Zone 45-B-31

Dear Mr. Poller:

Please note that I can not issue your building permit for a sign because your retail use is not allowed in this zone. Our microfiche shows that the last use that was allowed in this zone by the Board of Appeals on 9-2-82 was for three professional offices and apartments. There is no record of retail sales. I believe that when you where previously in the office researching your sign nearly a month ago, I suggested that you look at our microfiche since I did not specifically remember any grandfathered retail sales in that area.

I can not issue the sign permit (which is considered an accessory use) to an illegal use. I would be glad to discuss this further with you if you wish. Your permit will be on hold for a short time until an allowed use on this site is determined.

Very Truly Yours,
