The inspection will determine if the nonconforming dwelling units and common areas comply or can brought into compliance with the City Housing Code and the NFPA Life Safety Code – Fire Prevention Code. The applicant has 30 days to file a Conditional Use Appeal with the ZBA from the date the objection is received or the date of the Zoning Administrator's decision. All ZBA appeal application, processing, and notification fees apply and shall be paid by the applicant.
5. After the permit is approved, and prior to the issuance of the Certificate of Occupancy, final inspections may need to be scheduled to ensure that the building is in compliance with all housing and fire codes.
