Hi John,

Quick question on your condo conversion application - have the units been vacant since you owned the building? I just need to verify that there have been no tenants within the last six months.

Also, do you happen to have floor plans and if so can you e-mail them to me? I know the application doesn't ask for them but I know they are helpful for the code inspectors when it comes to issuing the final Certificates of Occupancy.

Thanks,
Chris

There have been no tenants since my ownership.
I will get you the floor plan on Monday.

Thanks
John
