Dear Sir/Madam:

I am a resident of Yarmouth, Maine and on February 14, 2005 I was on the premises of 130 Emery Street in Portland. I fell on the steps leading to that dwelling causing serious injury to me, that required surgical intervention. According to Portland tax records that dwelling is owned by Janice Chapman of Cape Elizabeth. The steps are extremely steep and may not be up to the standards of the Portland building code and I would appreciate it if you would perform an examination of that property to ensure that the stairs comply with the building code.

Sincerely yours,

John Schumacher
