Hello,

Thank you, I will review these plans and let you know if I need anything else.

Stuart, to simplify things I have included the change of use on this permit for the salon in unit 7A. You will need to pay an additional $100 for the CO and we will need to inspect. Unit 7B, where the new ADA bathroom is being built will remain vacant at this time. A separate permit will be required for any new tenant fit up and to establish the use.

Thanks for the key plan of the building, you should keep this in your files for future permits.

Jeanie
