

The building sign will be attached to the brick façade between the two attachment points of the Existing Sign. It will use bolts to hold a metal bracket to the bricks and a perpendicular metal bar will support the sign will attach to the bracket. See attached 'Hung Sign Hardware'.