Marge,

Norway Savings Bank owns the property. Currently, Bank of America leases the space from them, and the agreement is up for termination in August. Bank of America is vacating the space at the end of June. Norway Savings Bank will be opening a branch there, but construction cannot begin until August. The temporary facilities would allow Norway to have a presence on the premises during the month of July which currently is in limbo. The temporary structure would be in use from the beginning of July into early September. I'm sorry if this is confusing, please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Simon Hebert

Hi Simon,

I have started reviewing your application to place a temporary office and ATM unit on your property. I have not seen any information as to why this temporary structure is required. Could you please elaborate? Also what is the time frame for this "temporary" structure.

Thank you,
