Kurt

This is the address of my friends from Burundi. 581 forest ave Portland

His name is Jean-Pierre Dishamia (die sha mee ah)
Not sure on the spelling.

As I mentioned this morning, they are living under a terrible slum lord with 5 children in an insect infested building. He is verbally abusive. Tells them he will evict them without any authority. The heat is only in one room in the apartment.

They have already told the people at housing assistance about the situation and have gotten no results. I feel that any action will probably be outside the normal paradigm. I would describe their condition as desperate without hesitation.

Please let me know you got this and if you could, answer a couple of questions.

Should we be optimistic about the chances of this situation be changed for the better? In a timely manner?

Would you please let me know when you get in contact with the people involved and what they think will be the best course of action is?

Thanks for all your help in advance.

Ben Vickery
