

17. Solid Waste

The proposed building will have private service for trash and recycling collection. Tenants (residential and commercial) will be informed of collection day and appropriate interim on-site storage of waste and recycling will be inside the building in the trash room.

All waste generated from the site preparation, general site work, and building construction will be collected and sorted/separated on-site in containers and disposed of properly, off-site, by the general contractor.