

Exhibit 6: Water and Sewer Capacity

The proposed project is an expansion of an existing facility with existing utility services. All required utilities for the expansion are already in place on-site and services will be extended to the proposed building space from within the existing building.