

Exhibit 8: Traffic Movement

The proposed project is ancillary to an existing operational facility and is intended to support existing operations. The site plan indicates that parking needs for the proposed expansion will be met. As a result, the expansion project is not expected to change existing traffic patterns.