Joe -

I have completed my initial zoning review for this permit. I need more information before I can sign off and move the permit forward in the system.

1. What is the length of the dormer?
2. You need to submit a plot plan. A dormer is an addition, so I need to know what the setbacks are.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks.

Ann

Hello again, I will be filing an amendment and will include setback information there. The original dormer was 10' long, the new concept is 28' full length dormer. I'll get you all of the information asap.
