To the Board,

Please consider the attached application concerning my property at 9-11 Galvin St., CBL 166 F009001, an existing 2-family home, to renovate the third floor/unfinished attic space to make a third dwelling unit in the building.

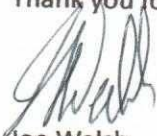

When I purchased the property in 2014, it was evident that the third floor had been finished and used as an apartment at one time, as the photos included with the application will show.

I began the process of updating this area to install new insulation, updated wiring and fixtures, etc, but in the process determined a better use would be to convert the space into another unit, pursuant to section 14-118 of the city's building code.

The proposed use is a 1-bedroom apartment. Ample parking is available off-street on our property for apartment dwellers and guests. This is my primary residence and so an owner-occupied building.

I can be reached by phone at (207) 272-9634, or via email at jwalsh@greencleanmaine.com and look forward to answering your questions.

Thank you for your consideration,

Joe Walsh

To the Board,

As per request of Chris Stacy in her email dated 01/17/18, please find below the conditional use standards in bullet point format along with my answers on how this project is meeting all standards.

From the application itself:

1. The volume and type of vehicle traffic to be generated, hours of operation, expanse of pavement, and the number of parking spaces required are not substantially greater than would normally occur at surrounding uses or other allowable uses in the same zone
Proposed use is a small 1-bedroom apartment. Volume of traffic will be comparable to other dwelling units on the same street. The subject property contains parking spaces for 8 total vehicles, with two off-street parking spaces reserved for the proposed dwelling unit in the paved area on the northeasterly side of the building. While the paved area parking available for this unit is under my ownership and control, and currently sits vacant and unused, it is part of a larger lot which is shared with other three and four-unit buildings, so this use will mix well.
2. The proposed use will not create unsanitary or harmful conditions by reason of noise, glare, dust, sewage disposal, emissions to the air, odor, lighting, or litter
Proposed use will generate regular household trash and recycling waste for a 1-bedroom apartment. There is ample space in the on-site storage garage and on the Northeasterly side of the building for city-issued recycling bins and lockable trash bins which I provide to my tenants.
3. The design and operation of the proposed use, including but not limited to landscaping, screening, signs, loading deliveries, trash or waste generation, arrangement of structures, and materials storage will not have a substantially greater effect/impact on surrounding properties than those associated with surrounding uses of other allowable uses in the zone
There will be no alterations to landscaping to accommodate this additional unit. As per item 1, the parking designated for this unit is in an area that I own and control, and that is already paved, but sits vacant, and joins another parking area that is already used by three and four unit buildings, and there are 8 total parking spaces on the subject property, exceeding the requirement of 1 parking space per unit.

From the R-5 Conditional Use Standards in the Zoning Code, Sec 14-118(a)(5), letters a through h:

- a. No more than 4 dwelling units, no more than 2 additional units
The total number of dwelling units on the property before the proposed project is 2, after the proposed project will be 3. This proposal would add one (1) additional unit.
- b. Not to be sold as condos

The proposed use is a 1-bedroom apartment for rental, affordable to households making 80% of AMI and will be subject to income verification as outlined in this conditional use standard.

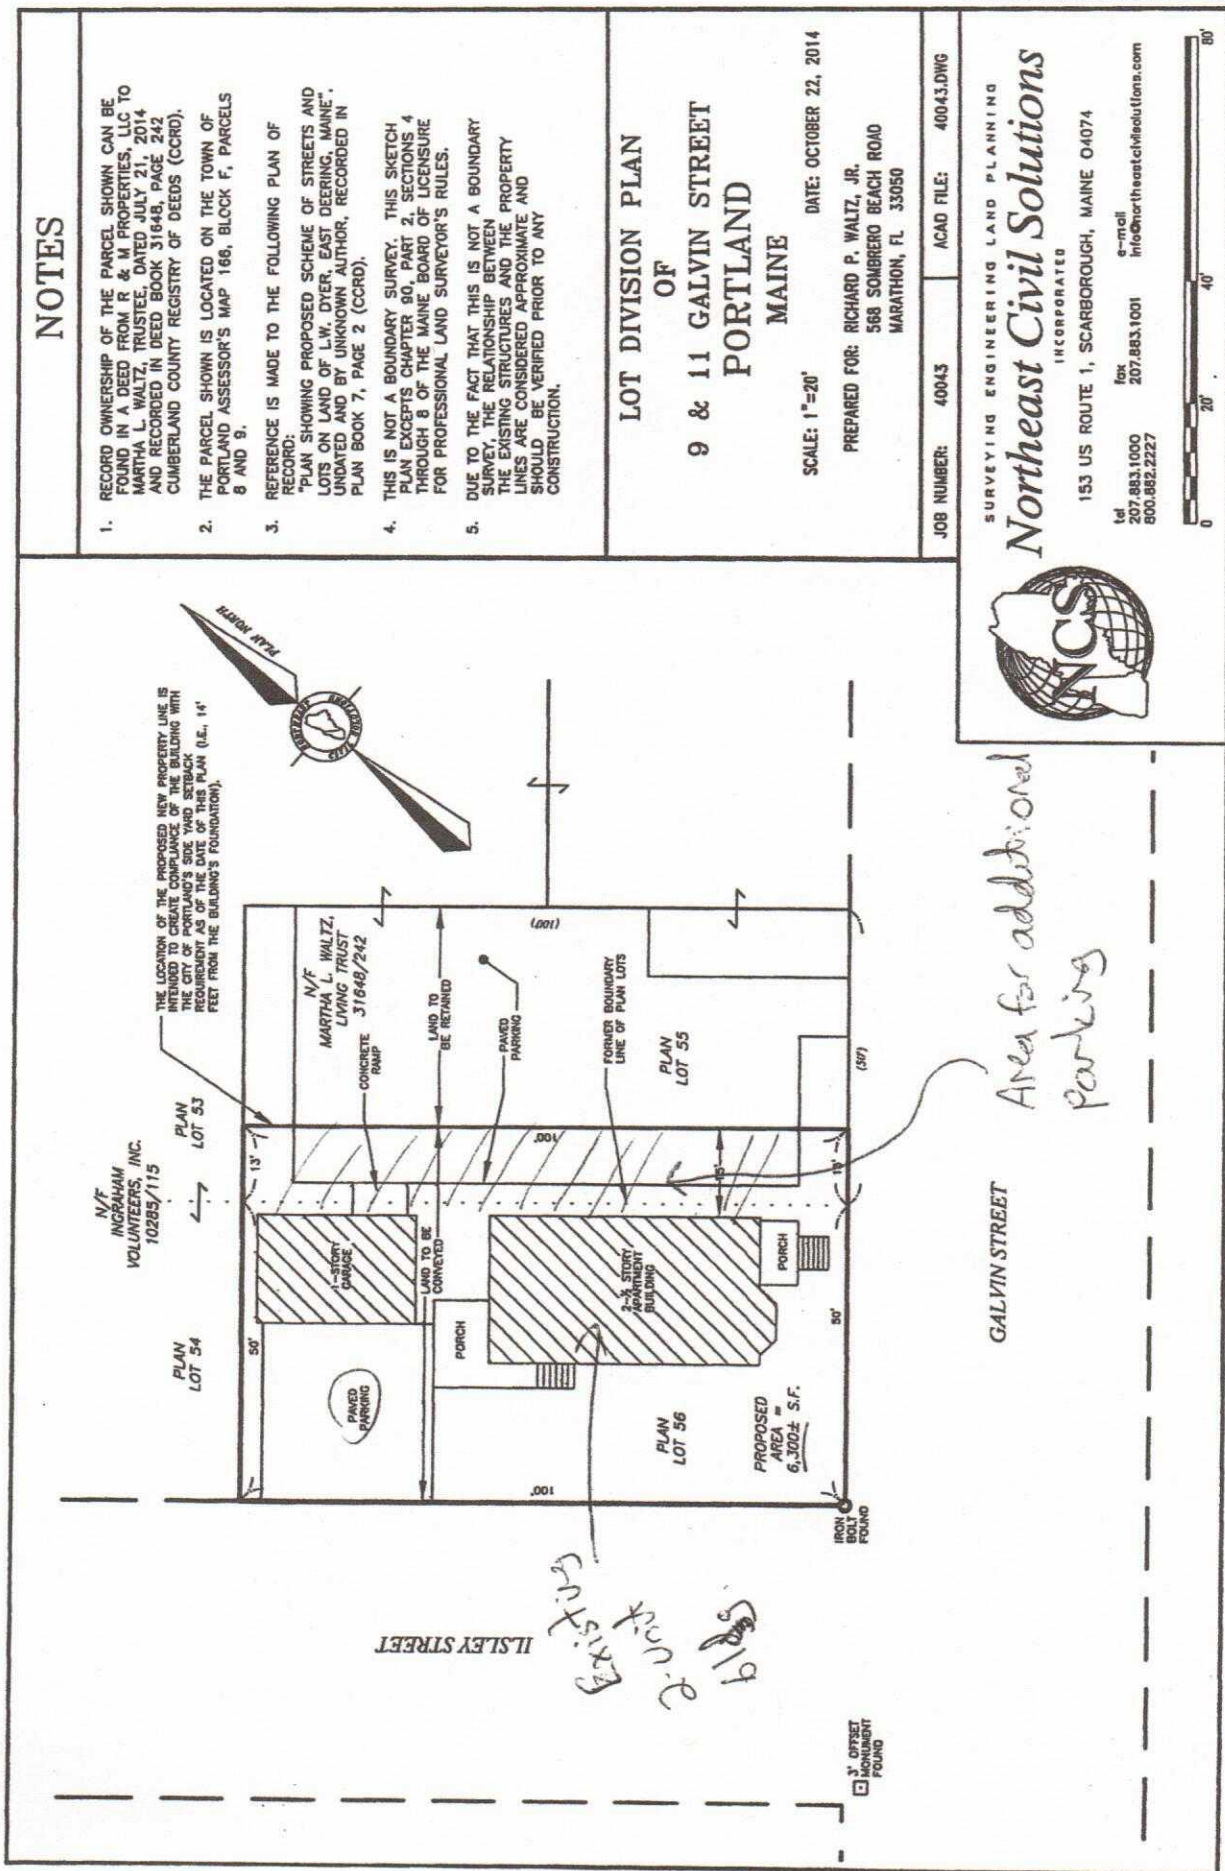

- c. Units must be affordable to households earning up to 80% of AMI
As part of the proposed use, I, the applicant and property owner, agree to comply with all affordability standards as outlined in this Conditional Use Standard, for the time period stipulated, and to provide full documentation of such as required by the standard.
- d. 400SF floor area, not to remove more than 10% of an existing dwelling unit, may include the attic
Plans show a total SF area of ~~552~~ SF, with a floor-to-ceiling height of 4' or more, built in the existing attic space, inside of the knee walls, plus storage behind knee walls. No SF will be removed from either of the two existing dwelling units.
- e. Modifications limited to new doors and windows, other openings
The only modification to the existing space, besides minor interior build-out, will be new windows as required by the building code to meet standards for egress. No external framing modification will be required nor is any such modification proposed.
- f. Parking shall be provided as required by Div 20 of article
Parking provided of two off-street spaces dedicated for this unit, with a total of 8 parking spaces for the 3 total units on the subject property after the proposed project, exceeds standards
- g. No open, outside stairs or fire escapes
No such structure is proposed as part of this project.
- h. Article V review
 - i. Exterior modifications to be compatible with architectural style of building
The only exterior modifications will be new replacement windows to meet egress standards, which are to match the existing replacement windows in style and appearance. Existing building is a two-family and the proposed space was once a non-conforming third unit, so the appearance of the building will be unchanged.
 - ii. Scale and surface area of parking, driveways and paved areas arranged and landscaped properly to screen vehicles from adjacent properties
Parking area is already paved and sits unused. It is adjacent and part of a parking area already used for parking by multi-unit buildings. There is a screen of landscaping vegetation existing that blocks the view of the parking lot from the street.

I can be reached by phone at (207) 272-9634, or via email at jwalsh@greencleanmaine.com and look forward to answering your questions.
