

Kitchen interior wall will be removed and a LDL beam will be installed. It will be supported with posts on both sides. There is a carrying beam in the basement below the wall.

