

249 BANCROFT RD, PORTLAND

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REQUESTED:

. Do the bathroom walls already exist or are you creating new walls for the bathroom? If you are adding new walls, please submit the framing plans for your bathroom so that the reviewer can see how you plan to construct the walls.

Bathroom walls do exist

Creating a 36" x 84" partition wall for one side of the new walk-in shower. (drawing attached)

Please detail how you will attach the hanging ceiling and where you are installing the new lighting fixtures.

18" gauge hanger wire

Eye-lag screws for wood joist (1/2" x 3")

Armstrong hemmed angle for walls

Armstrong 2' cross tee

2' x 2' Armstrong ceiling tile

Lighting Fixtures

Two sconce lights over pedestal sink (one on each side of mirror)

One fan/light combination in center of ceiling (Panasonic FV11VQI6)

Vented outside with 4" round metal duct pipe-6' long to exterior of house.

Please provide information about the bathroom pocket door and the type of hung ceiling you plan to install

Pocket Door-2' x 4' existing none weight bearing wall

Installing a 2/8 x 6/8 6-panel wood door with Everbuilt 36" adjust pocket door frame set

Hung ceiling

Armstrong drop ceiling