Do you have any concerns re this- Karen's is the first attachment; I have added the layout that went to the Planing Board so you can see what has changed.

thanks
Jean

Good Morning Jean, we ran into a slight issue with the Dunkin drive through configuration as the operator was concerned about the location of the ground mounted HVAC units. Please note the minor adjustment in the attached pdf. This configuration provides for the same stacking from the menu board and the same location at the end of the queue but just shifts the menu board around the building corner. We believe this is a minor adjustment but wanted to confirm with you.

Thanks

Karen
