Comments:

10/13/2009-amachado: Spoke to Jen at Barlo Signs. Told her that there were already three pylon signs and the ordinance only allows two with special criteria. Jen said that it was her understanding that Planning had approved it. I have sent an email to Barbara.

10/15/2009-amachado: Gave permit to Alex to sign off on.

10/19/2009-amachado: Permit #07-0103 was issued to put a pylon sign at the Rand Road entrance. This permit has expired and the sign was never installed. It is the understanding from the planning division that there will be no sign at the Rand Road entrance and this sign will be allowed on Brighton Ave. instead.

Ann Machado - Pylon Sign for 1056 Brighton

From: Ann Machado
To: Alex Jaegerman
Date: 10/15/2009 2:13 PM
Subject: Pylon Sign for 1056 Brighton

Alex -

I spoke to Barbara about this and she said to talk to you.

1056 Brighton Ave., the Aspen Denatal & Bangor Savings buldings at Pine Tree, have applied to put up a pylon sign on Brighton Ave. There is already a pylon sign on Brighton Ave at the main entrance. The sign ordinance only allows one pylon sign for each street that the shopping center fronts on.

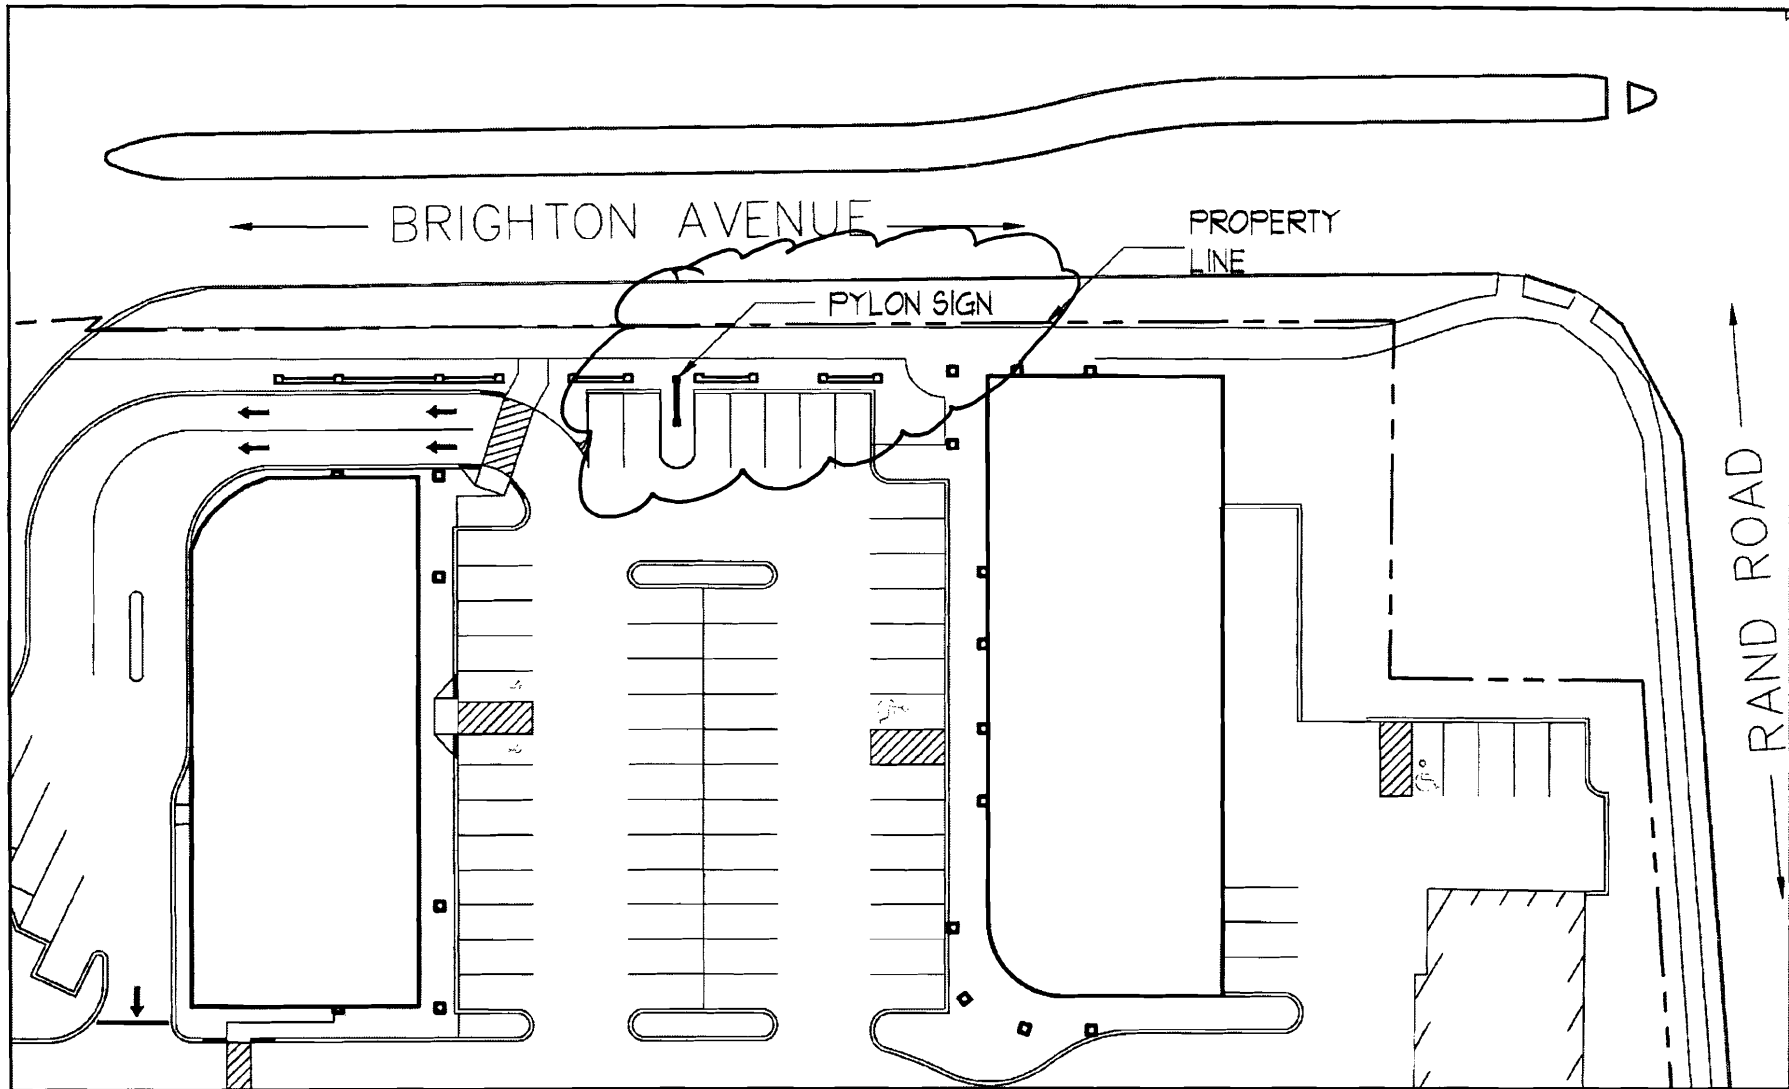

On Feb. 9, 2007 a pylon sign was approved to go up on the Rand Road entrance for Lowes and the tenants in thes two buildings. This had to be approved by planning because there is already a pylon sign for Firestone Tire on Rand Road. My understanding from Barbara is that this pylon sign was never installed. She said that someone had spoken to you about installing a pylon sign in front of the two buildings on Brighton Ave., in lieu of installing the pylon sign on Rand Road.

Barlo Signs has applied to install the second pylon sign. Zoning can't sign off on it. Barbara said to give it to you for your approval. She aslo said that there should be a condition that there not be a pylon sign installed at the Rand Road entrance.

Please let me know if you have any questions. I have put the permit in your box in planning for your dsign off. Could you give it back to me when yuo have signed off?

I will not be in tomorrow, but I'll be in on Monday.

Ann
