Dear Ms. Schmuckel:

We received your letter dated May 21, 1986 regarding Maine Mack, 299 Warren Ave.

Foundation and anchor bolt plans are enclosed.

There is a letter of certification in the mail to us from Pascoe Building Systems, Inc. We will forward the letter to you as soon as we receive it. The letter of certification certifies that the building materials are designed to meet or exceed all requirements for a 50 lb. live load, 20 lb. wind load building.

The addition will be sprinklered.

Very truly yours,

Subject: Maine Mack Truck Garage Building 299 WARREN AVE
Portland, Maine

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that the materials for the tapered column modular frame building that Pascoe Building Systems, Inc. will furnish for the above listed project are assigned to meet the load requirements of your order.

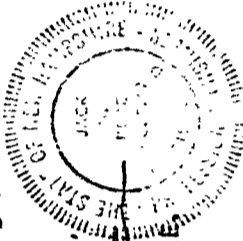

This building is 80 (2 @ 40) ft. wide x 60 ft. long x 21 ft. eave height, and consists of 20 ft. bays, with a 1:12 roof slope and column end beam endwalls. The live load used for design is 50 psf. The wind load is 80 mph.

This material certification is void if this project is not erected in accordance with Pascoe Building Systems Erection Instructions and good erection practices.

It must be understood that I am not the engineer of record for the total project and that this certification does not include foundation design, erection, or design of any outside purchase items.

Very truly yours,

Re: 299 Warren Ave.

Dear Mr. Frederick Brown:

recent application for a building permit to erect a 60' by 80' addition 299 Warren Ave.

is being held due to insufficient information in the following areas:

1. No foundation plan was submitted. This office will need a foundation plan with dimensions as shown. Permits - Attached
2. An engineer's seal will be needed for this pre engineered design showing a 50 lb per square foot live load on the roof. is standing 6/9/86
3. The Fire venting Division requires that the sprinkler system be extended to include this area. will do per letter received 5/29/86

Please supply this office with the required information so that we may complete a plan review, and issue a permit.

Sincerely,

Marge Schumuckel
