---

Ann,

Thank you for today's letter superseding your earlier determination and finding that Allagash is permitted under the city's land use ordinance to provide pre-packaged food at its brewery tasting room.

As a result of today's determination from your office, it is no longer necessary to for Allagash to pursue its interpretation appeal of your November 3, 2015 determination. Please inform the Board of Appeals that Allagash withdraws its pending appeal.

Thank you,

Gordy

Jill -

I have attached a letter that reverses the Zoning Division's decision regarding the application to the City clerk's office for a FSE without Prep license. The Zoning Division will now "approve" the sale of pre-packaged snacks as an accessory use to the brewery.

I have attached the original letter as well as the application.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
