

I propose to cut away a 4ft section of 2x10 floor joist to allow for required clearance at the base of basement stairs. Removal of this 4ft section will in no way compromise the structural integrity of the building.

