Good morning Capt Petruccelli,

This is commercial property, it looks like it's a vacant property but I wasn't sure since it has outstanding fire and electrical violations. I was wondering if you could confirm the status of building so that maybe I could move it off of my followup list.

Could you take a look when you get a chance?

Thanks!

You are correct. You may remove it from the list. The building was posted against occupancy and was going to require building/electrical permits to correct. It will require a city inspection under ordinance before any one can occupy. I will confirm in my travels that no one is in there.

Thank you
