From: Ann Machado
To: Philip DiPierro

Subject: New Single family - siteplan 2009-0076

Phil -

I left you a voicemail earlier. The new single family home on Allen Ave. (2009-0076) should be 488 Allen Ave, CBL 376 A019001.

I have completed my initial review. I have two issues. The siteplan shows a 4' x 12' deck on the rear but the building plans don't. There is only one parking space (the garage) beyond the 25' front setback.

Let me know when you have completed your review.

Thanks,

Ann

Re: Subdivision Amendment – Northgate Farms

Dear Sarah,

Enclosed please find my application and plans for a proposed subdivision amendment of the Northgate Farms Subdivision. This project consists of a lot split of tax parcel 376-A-9, a 0.85 acre lot on Allen Avenue northeast of Washington Ave.

If approved, the new lot being created will substantially exceed both the minimum frontage and area requirements of the R-3 zone in which it is located and will provide a comfortable housing opportunity in this fast growing section of the city. At the same time the unique character and historical value of the old farmhouse and barn on the remaining property will be preserved.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if I can provide any additional information or if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

John Ransom

Subject: Amendment to Northgate Farms Subdivision

Sarah,
I have reviewed the plans showing an additional lot carved off for this subdivision. The existing lot with the farm house and the newly proposed lot meet the R-3 zone requirements for street frontage, lot width, potential for setbacks and lot size.

This is not an approval for a specific house. That would be under a separate permit application.
