

04: Evidence of State or Federal Permits

As the proposed development will disturb less than one acre of land, and as the total impervious area will be the same after the construction of the freezer addition; no permitting is required through the Maine Department of Environmental Protection.