Hi Ron,

I'm looking at this sign application and had a question. The plans don't show exactly where the sign will be placed. Will it be set back at least 5 feet from the front property line, as required?

Also, just wanted to let you know that you no longer have to file a separate fast track form for sign permits. We incorporated the fast track language into the principal application form for signs.

Thanks,
Chris

Yes, it will be more than the 5' setback.

Thanks
