CITY OF PORTLAND, MAINE
MEMORANDUM

TO: David Lourie, Corporation Counsel
FROM: Warren J. Turner, Building Inspection & Services
SUBJECT: Possible Division of Ownership for 1-3 Grant St - Duplex

DATE: Dec. 7, 1981

Mr. George Koutalakis (Ph: 767-3261) has inquired as to whether a duplex may be divided as to ownership.

The subject duplex is located at 1-3 Grant Street. At one time, Paul Rollins was a roomer there.

The property at #1 is owned by Mrs. Catherine Coughlan, who also owns #3, which was shown as belonging to Stuart and Catherine Coughlan until 1971. Records in the City Clerk's Office show that Stuart Coughlan died on April 24, 1970. One-half of a duplex at #3 subsequently became the property of Catherine as survivor, who also owns #1 Grant St. the other half of the duplex at present time.

Now, Mr. Koutalakis is asking the question:

"Can Mrs. Coughlan sell one-half of this duplex to another owner?"

Please advise me your opinion or call him directly regarding this question.

Attention: Mortgage Department

Gentlemen:

The subject building at 1-3 Grant Street is a duplex, for which separate deeds and separate tax bills have been issued in previous years.

It appears that although this building may have been in single ownership in the past, when owned by Mrs. Stuart Coughlan, this building may be dealt with as two separate units for sale, ownership, or conveyances.
