Dear Mrs. Worthing:-

Building permit for a minor alteration by way of cutting in a skylight to give light and air to an otherwise dark room on third floor of your building at 33 Carroll St., is issued to the contractor with a copy of this letter.

The application indicates that the building is a single family dwelling house. Since this minor alteration is evidently to make usable a third floor room, it is not out of place to warn you that if this small change should be a forerunner of some plans to use the building for anything other than a single family dwelling, the Building Code contains special requirements as to means of egress from such a third floor.

If you should have such changes in mind either now or in the future, it would be well to contact this office about them before going ahead with providing the skylight.

Very truly yours,

Warren McDonald
