This burner is installed at the first we knew but it was a call for inspection from the owner. When he made application for the permit I asked him how he happened to do this without permit. He said they were in a hurry for it and it was too late to get the permit.
I said how late and he said three o'clock.
I said we are open until four o'clock. I do not remember of having had him before in connection with oil burners.
