RE: 71-73 Whitney Avenue

Ronald F. and Kathryn Libby
71 Whitney Avenue
Portland, Maine 04102

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Libby:

If you wish to convert your single family dwelling to a two family in the R-2 Residence Zone, you will need to apply for a variance for lot width, which is only 25 feet instead of the 60 feet which is required in the City Zoning Ordinance.

You should apply for a change of use with floor plans and showing that you can provide adequate parking offstreet, and then we would recommend that you go to the Board of Appeals requesting a space and bulk variance for lot width. The total overall lot size meets the requirements for a two family structure in the R-2 Zone, but the lot width is inadequate.

Sincerely,

Warren J. Turner
