Dear Mr. Titcomb:

Upon making routine inspection of job at the above address the following discrepancies were found:

- 1. Where upright 2x8 members of combination lox sill runs parallel to floor joists they are required to be doubled.
- 2. No less than 2x3 nailing strips required on carrying timbers to support first floor joists.
- 3. Where carrying timber was too short to rest on 4x6 sill it is necessary that solid blocking be used to support each end.

When these items have been taken care of please notify this

Very truly yours,

Earle Smith Field Inspector

Dear Mr. Titcomb;

There are two cracks in the foundation near the front left being in the front wall and che in the street with one cracks are about 1-inch wide at the Left hand side with one crack disappear near the cellar floor level. This would indicate a vertical settlement or frost setion. There appears to be no cracking problem displacement of a portion of the walls which could be the result of at the rear wall and side walls near the rear which have been designed both itside and outside.

The rear walls near the rear which have been designed both itside and outside.

on the inside be taken to protect the front and portions of the aide building until this building is closed in from the weather.
