Warren McDonald, Inspector of Buildings

In general--use of land in a Local Business Zone for a veterinarian's office and small animal hospital; in particular-use of the lot at 13-19 Auburn St. in a Local Business Zone for that purpose.

Dr. Germaine Houle of Wells, Maine, a veteriaerian, is trying to set up in Portland and is having the town scoured to find a place where he can either have his home and his office combined with his small ardmal's hospital (mostly dogs), on the game lot or his office, operating room and hospital on a separate lot, in which case he would live clowhere.

His agent has made a specific inquiry work constructing a one-story building at 13-19 Auburn St., about 25 by 40 feet witch would accommodate his office, operating room and cages for dogs indoors and some small outside runs. If this were allowed, he would have his residence elsewhere. His agent claims that this is a retail service in that the exterinarian would take mostly dogs there directly from the call service in that the electricities would cake mostly dogs there directly from the owners, examine them, treat them and care for them for pay. Should it then be allowed as a retail service other than those specifically listed in Section 6A?

The situation becomes complicated in that it seems true that a raing in one Local Business Zone must apply in the same way to all other such zones. The same one Local Business Lone must apply in the same way to all other such zones. The same inquirer is anking about the very large former dwelling at the corner of Columbia Rosd and Brighton Aver-also in a Local Business Yone. If he acquired that property he would live there and have his office and hospital either in a part of the existing here. ne would live oners and have him office and hospital aloner in a part of the were permitted . building or in an addition. One could easily imagine the outburst if he were permitted . to establish in this latter location without recourse to the Board of Appeals.

Ten years ago the Building Inspector would probably have nonchatantly domaed his judicial robes and said "no!" on the basis that the use would be injurious or offensive to the neighborhood by reason of the aminaion at least of noise. I am familiar with the valid claim that no use can be proven to be injurious or offensive until it has been established, but I am also guilty of feeling that within limits until it has been established, but I am also guilty of feeling that within limits the issuance of a building permit should be tempered to the good of the neighborhood. From discussions in our Building Officials Conferences the conclusion usually errived at the that to asset of doubt to should see that the conclusion of doubt to should see that the conclusion is a should see that the conc at is that in case of doubt we should say "no" and let the applicant prove that see are wrong. That, of course, might prove definitely undair to the party who desires to sell his property and has a good customer.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the hospital, convalescent home or sanitarium is not allowed in a Local Businuss Zone unless it is construed to he a retail business or service.
