INQUIRY: Is a permit needed for the erection on the beach near this location of a shed about 16' wide by 40' long to provide a shelter for and space for working on a boat now hauled out on a cradle?

Apparently there is a dwelling ~~with~~ ^{near} the boat + cradle - ~~there~~ ^{or yard}

ANSWER: Yes, a permit is required, and since the location is in an R.C. zone, this is not permissible if it is located on a lot not occupied by a dwelling and since a boat house is not a use customarily incidental to a dwelling house, we could not give a permit for its erection on lot with dwelling-house.
